The image shows a tablet displaying three training modules. The first module is titled "Personal Protective Equipment Examples" and shows a diagram of a person wearing various PPE items: hard hat, safety glasses, ear muffs, safety gloves, safety boots, and a respirator. The second module is titled "GHS Container Labeling" and shows three hazard labels: Flammable Liquid, Oxidizer, and Corrosive. The third module is titled "The Healthy Brain" and shows a diagram of a neuron. Three orange arrows point from the tablet to the right, each with a hand icon and a link to a course list:
